Liberty, MO, Sept. 18, 2017 -- Continental Disc Corporation // Groth Corporation is pleased to announce a new partnership with CTi Controltech, San Ramon CA, to provide sales and support to the pressure relief market of Northern California and Nevada. CTi Controltech is a leading provider of sales and service in the process control industry and will be a great partner to provide unmatched support to our customer base in the California and Nevada market. With an emphasis on sales and support of technical products, CTi Controltech and Continental Disc // Groth Corporation will partner to offer top level support of high quality solutions in pressure and vacuum protection.

CTi Controltech, strategically based in San Ramon, is poised to support customers in all industries where a need for pressure protection, API tank protection and specialty pressure products are warranted. Servicing the area since 1976, CTi Controltech's long established customer base fits well with an overlapping install base of Continental Disc and Groth products.

Continental Disc Corporation (Liberty, MO) and Groth Corporation (Stafford, TX) have provided high quality pressure safety products to many markets in the Northern California area for over fifty years. A partnership with CTi Controltech will allow Continental Disc and Groth to offer products, support and technical expertise at the highest possible level. Please reach out to CTi Controltech for any opportunities where assistance or support is required for rupture disc and/or API pressure protection products.
